GREENVILLE

Dr. Stough Addresses Gathering of Several Hundred at Congregational Church—Other Mention.

A large and encouraging congregation filled the Greenville Congregational church Thursday afternoon to hear Dr. Stough in the union evangelistic campaign. Under the direction of Chorister Spooner, with Miss Elizabeth Grove as organist, the hymn "It Is Well With My Soul" opened the services at 2 o'clock. Win Some One was the next selection, followed by prayer by the Rev. J. R. Very of the Third Baptist church. After another hymn Mr. Herring rendered the solo, "I'm a Poor Sinner."

Dr. Stough took his scripture lesson from Matthew 15: 21, and the following verses, "The story of the Canaan-ish woman whose daughter, vexed of a devil, was healed. His text was the 24th verse: O woman, great is thy faith."

Dr. Stough gave us Jesus' definition of a great character. To be called great by Jesus is true greatness, and here is a woman that elicited from Jesus the greatest praise possible for a divine heart to bestow upon mortal man. This woman deserves a place beside the greatest who ever lived on earth, because of the obstacles she overcame.

First, she was a woman of foreign nationality and of the Gentile kingdom. The Jew was the ancient aristocracy, a man of peculiar caste. Next, when she came unbidden to his grief to him, he answered her not a word.
It does not seem like our Lord to be so ungracious. If you have ever prayed with all the earnestness of your heart, and the heavens remained brazen, you can imagine how this woman felt.

Notes.

George H. Taylor of Putnam was a recent visitor in Greenville.

The Fourth street hill between Prosper street and Central avenue has been given a top dressing this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Burdick of

Funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Thurber—Excavation Filled In.—Petition to Be Sent In Soon.

The excavation at the foot of Providence street, made by the trolley company several months ago, was filled in this week by employees of the Penomah company. The work of laying the track has not been started yet, due to the disagreement between the telephone and trolley companies. The petition for an extension of the trolley line from Providence street will probably be sent in to the railroad commissioners at Hartford soon. Some of the copies have their full list of 500 signers, but one or two are still incomplete. About 2,500 names have been secured, it is estimated.

The funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Thurber was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Leathers of Lisbon. In the large attendance were people from Boston, Providence, Taftville and Norwich. Rev. Donald B. MacLane of the Taftville Congregational church conducted the services, and the church choir sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Good-Night, Thee, Dear One." William Morton, George Walker and Edwin Appleby of Lisbon and Louis Wunderlich of Taftville. There were many flowers. Burial was in the family lot in the Ames cemetery at New-Evangelists Greatly Encouraged by the Results—Dr. Stough Tells who are The Children of God.

Thursday night at the armory there was an attendance of over 600 for the union evangelistic campaign, and the meeting was one of much power, resulting in some thirty or more coming forward to profess Christ in the after-meeting that followed the sermon by Dr. Stough. A number of these came out of the chorus as they did on the previous evening, but the largest number to come to the front seats when the invitation was given were young men and young women from the big congregation.

In the opening song service led by the chorus directed by Mr. Spooner, praises were offered by Rev. Dr. M. K.
Kaufman and Rev. Jerome Greer. Mr.
Herring, with violin obligato by Miss Minnie Townsend, sang in his usual excellent style a new arrangement of Just As I Am, which was set to the music of Sing Me to Sleep.

Meeting for Women.
In the notices given by Dr. Stough special attention was called to the last of the cottage prayer meetings which are to be held this morning. There is to be a special meeting for women only at the armory this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the evangelist is to speak on Mother Eve's Daughters, and Mr.
Herring and Mrs. Archibald Mitchell, as well as the lovely Love Divine, All Love Excelling, from Stainer's Daughter of Jairus. On both Friday and Saturday nights there are to be meetings at the armory, and a special young people's service on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Rev. W. T. Thayer offered prayer after twenty requests that he be dif-ficultly announced his text as Galatians III, 26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Dr. Stough said that he did not know that the church had ever passed through such a period of drift as at the present time. Certain it is that everything has passed under the scapula of so-called students of God and Christianity. But no doctrine of recent times has been hailed with such delight as that which stated that if Christianship meant anything at all, it taught the universal fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. It seemed to take well enough when applied to those who were accustomed to associate with those who were of the same many hall it with delight when called upon to make a brother of the colored man, the Chinese, the Japanese or the Filipino. We have seen that it is difficult when we apply this doctrine to everyday experience, and there is not a doctrine, he thought, that has so much of error mingled with a little truth.

Who Are Children of God?
The preacher said that he wished to ask and answer the question, "Who are the children of God?" John says that there are two families, that all are not the children of God, but some are the children of God and some are the children of the devil.
It is manifest that these two families exist because the children of God do righteousness, but he that com-

How to Tell.
We may know also that we are children of God by the spirit he has given us. In the heart of everyone in this building tonight is an indescribable peace that does not practice sin. The spirit of God that tells whether these things are the truth. We know by the spirit within us and this is the mark of the child of God.

And lastly we may tell whether we are the children of God, if we have overcome the world. This is a difficult thing to do, but it is the only way to overcome the world. The church should cure these ills of men, should overcome the evil of rum and the debauchery of gambling, and it's time for the church to strike when the church shall arise in the spirit of the Holy Ghost to take captive those that are bound in sin.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. James Gamble.
The death of Mrs. James Gamble occurred at her home, No. 12 P.
Pleasant street, on Thursday evening after an illness of fifteen weeks with rheumatism.

Mrs. Gamble has been a resident of Norwich all her life, having been born here Jan. 9, 1843, daughter of Thomas Jefferson and Frances Ross Barney. She married James Gamble, who died many years ago. Mrs. Gamble was a woman of kind and sympathetic disposition, a true friend and neighbor, and many have known and loved her for her generous nature. She was a member of the Woman's Relief corps and a member of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church.
She was the last of her family. She leaves a granddaughter, Mrs. James Ryan.

WEDDING.
Avery-Ellsworth.
A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Ellsworth on the fountain street, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when their daughter, Elizabeth Ellsworth, became the bride of Rev. Thomas M. Hodgson, pastor of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony. The house was decorated with white flowers and yellow and white chrysanthemums. Elliott Poots played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as the bride and groom, under the direction of the parlor.
The bride was given in marriage by her father, who wore a satin and duchess trimmings cut on train and wore a veil and carried a bouquet.
Among the relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norman and Misses Norman of Norwich. Mrs. Norman being a sister of the groom. Mrs. John Peckham and Miss Florence Peckham were bridesmaids. The bride was attended by Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ellsworth. Mr. Ellsworth is a brother of the bride. Other guests were present from Hartford, New
